

Events Along the Rock

Here are just some of the events that have been happening near the Escarpment lately. To invite

On Jan. 14, The Art Gallery of Hamilton (AGH) announced a multi-million-dollar donation by Joey and Toby Tanenbaum, of more than 100 works of African art. At the unveiling of some of the pieces were, from left, Hamilton Mayor Fred Eisenberger, AGH president and CEO Louise Dompierre and Erick Spencer, representing the Tanenbaums. The African art will be on exhibit May 22 to Sept. 6.

Amy Sky, Dan Hill and Marc Jordan performed at the River Run Centre in Guelph on Dec. 17. Carolyn Martin of Georgetown was the winner of two free tickets in a draw held on the Escarpment Views website.

Margaret Atwood and Graeme Gibson read from their latest books to a packed hall at Royal Botanical Gardens on Nov. 26. Event organizers were A Different Drummer Books of Burlington and Bryan Prince Booksellers of Hamilton.
